

Please do not allow BPL. There will be interference from this use that will not only make it difficult, or maybe even impossible, for me to listen to international shortwave stations. I would consider this as government sponsored jamming. I also worry that this will cause problems in emergencies when Ham operators and rescue people need all possible means to get through with urgent information.

There are more than enough means, other than BPL for internet people to use.